

NEW YORK TIMESJUL 18 1958
1958 NEW YORK TIMES

Washington Proceedings

YESTERDAY

(July 17, 1958)

THE PRESIDENT

Conferred with British Foreign Minister Lloyd and Secretary of State Dulles on Mideast. Met with Dr. Saulnier, chairman of his Council of Economic Advisors. Other callers included Senator Javits, Donald R. Heath, Ambassador from Sweden.

THE SENATE

Continued debate of reciprocal trade bill.

Rackets committee heard more on Chicago labor troubles.

THE HOUSE

Passed bill aimed at Federal statutes overturning state laws. Heard two members urge close Congressional supervision of Central Intelligence Agency. Legislative Oversight Subcommittee ended questioning of Bernard Goldfine. Civil Service Committee approved pensions for former Presidents. Adjourned at 4:39 P. M.

DEPARTMENTS & AGENCIES

State Department supported British landings in Jordan.

Navy tanker will probably supply oil products to Jordan.

Attorney General dropped Independent Socialist League from subversive list.

Treasury offered 1½ per cent one year certificate in $16,264,000,000 refinancing.

SCHEDULED FOR TODAY

(July 18, 1958)

House meets at noon.